

MORPHINE FIEND IS HELD FOR MEDICAL TREATMENT

Frank and Edna Fredericks, the white man and his negro wife who pleaded guilty yesterday to charges of disturbing the peace, were each sentenced this morning by the municipal court judge to serve ninety days in jail. The woman is a morphine fiend and her condition was such that the judge deemed it best to have her kept in custody where she could get medical attention.

Pat McCarty was found guilty of petit larceny and was given a ten-day jail sentence. According to the evidence, he stole a leather traveling bag from the store of Max Olisch on lower Twenty-fifth street, Wednesday afternoon.

John McKay, W. Hall, Ed. Gallagher, Charles Kelley, William Durean, Collin Ross, Fred White and John Doe pleaded guilty to charges of drunkenness. They having injured no one but themselves, the judge gave them suspended sentences.

John Smith, the 21-year-old youth who was found by Patrolman Wooten hiding under a back stairway of the National hotel, Wednesday at 2:10 a. m., was sentenced to serve sixty days in jail. When searched at the time of his arrest, Smith had a screwdriver stuck down in one of his shoes. When asked by the judge to explain how it got there Smith said it dropped through a hole in his trousers' pocket. The plausibility of this statement fell flat in the presence of the court, fell in the pockets and found them free from holes. The defendant was then given a strong lecture and sentenced.

John Kelly and Higgie John were each sentenced to serve five days in jail, having been previously convicted of drunkenness, as in the present case.

Alden Nicholas forfeited $10 bail. He was charged with exceeding a reasonable rate of speed in an automobile and was taken in Monday by Officer William Reast.

ALLOWANCE MADE IN BEASON ESTATE

The following decisions have been rendered by Judge N. J. Harris:

Estate of Charles M. Beason, deceased. The court finds that the petitioner, Hattie F. Beason, as widow of the deceased, is entitled to family allowance from the said estate, and fixes the same in the sum of $50 per month, to continue for a period of one year from date of death of the said deceased.

Sidney Stevens Implement company vs. James H. Wallis. Plaintiff's motion for additional findings of fact to the proposed findings may be granted, except as to the proposed finding number 11 which is disallowed. Plaintiff's objections to the findings as proposed by the defendant may be sustained and the proposed amendment thereto allowed.

PROBATE MATTERS IN DISTRICT COURT

The following probate petitions were disposed of by Judge N. J. Harris in the district court this morning:

Estate of Margaret Hanley, deceased, petition for approval of account and distribution granted.

Petition for an order to sell real estate in the matter of the estate of John F. Smith, deceased.

The petition of the guardian to settle a claim in the estate and guardianship of Kenneth M. Murray was granted.

An allowance of $10 a month was provided for in the matter of the estate and guardianship of Peter Childo, a minor.

Half Fare—One-way fare will be offered by the Ogden-Logan & Idaho Railway company over its road to Logan and return, October 27, the day of the celebration of the advent of the interurban electric.

PROMONTORY BAY MINING COMPANY

Taking over a number of zinc mining claims in the Promontory Bay Mining district, the Promontory Bay Mining company has filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk with a capital of $50,000, divided into shares of the par value of ten cents each. The mining claims taken over are valued at $50,000. Incorporators and first officers of the company are as follows:

D. J. Sheehan, president; A. B. Corey, vice president and general manager; George Halverson, vice president; O. A. Parmley, treasurer and auditor, who with C. M. Clay, form the directorate. R. R. Gamble, not a stockholder in the company, has been selected as secretary.

Stylish Garments Must Be Worn Over Proper Corsets

The artists who create styles in ladies' garments are in close touch with those who design styles in corsets. In fact, the corset designers take their models from the creations of the garment designers. You cannot possibly wear a new style garment as it was intended to be worn if it is fitted over an old style corset. Our expert corsetiere is a wizard when it comes to modeling the form to proper lines. Her expert knowledge is at your service without cost.

We are now showing the newest styles in Redferns, Warners, Gossards and the best of the other makers.
